St. James's, Nov. 26. The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Richard Vyvian Bar. and James Buller Eſq; Knights of the Shire for the County of Cornwall, attended by the Members of Parliament, and other Gentlemen of the County; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Granville, Lord Warden of the Stannaries.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

PErmit, Madam, the Landlords, Bounders, Adventurers, and whole Body of the Tinners of Cornwall, with Hearts full of all Dutiful Acknowledgments, to approach Your Majeſty, who want Words to expreſs their Gratitude, their Joy, their Admiration, for the wonderful Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Arms, under the Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, in Germany.

Never was Succeſs greater in all its Circumſtances, a Deſign more wiſely formed, more ſecretly carried on, ſo effectually ſupported from home, ſo vigorouſly executed abroad, on which no leſs than the Liberty of Europe depended; A Cauſe worthy the Beſt of Princes a Victory worthy the Greateſt of Generals, which will tranſmit to all future Ages Your Majeſty's Name truely Great: Great for Deliverance, not for Oppreſſion.

But 'tis not enough that Your Majeſty Triumphs by Land, to compleat Your Glory, Your Forces by Sea have likewiſe done Wonders, a Fleet ſo much inferiour in Strength, in ſo ill a Condition, by being ſo long out, in ſuch want of Ammunition, by taking Gibraltar; without Gallies, which were of ſo great Service to the Enemy: All theſe Diſadvantages conſidered, nothing certainly could equal the Conduct of Your Admiral, the Bravery of Your Officers, the Courage of Your Seamen, during the Engagement; but their Conduct, their Bravery, and their Courage after it, whereby they perfected a Victory, which otherwiſe, in Human Probability, muſt have ended in an Overthrow; An Action ſo great in it's Self, as happy in its Conſequences.

May Your Majeſty never want ſuch Commanders by Sea and Land, ſuch Adminiſtration in the Management of the publick Treaſure, which ſo much contributes to the Succeſs of Armies and of Fleets.

May Your Majeſty never want (what ſure You never can) the Hearts, the Hands, the Purſes, of all Your People. Had not we (Madam) of this County inherited the Loyalty of our Anceſtors, (which Your Majeſty has been pleaſed ſo graciouſly to remember) ſuch Obligations muſt have engaged our utmoſt Returns, and ſuch all of us will ever pay to Your Sacred Perſon and Government, as with one Voice we daily pray, long live Queen Anne, to whom many Nations owe their Preſervation.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Newcaſtle under Line was preſented to Her Majeſty by Offley Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Somerſet.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Burgeſſes, of Your Majeſty's Ancient Borough of Newcaſtle under Line, do unanimouſly, and with the utmoſt Sincerity, Congratulate Your Sacred Majeſty, upon the late unparelled and glorious Victory, obtained over the choiceſt Troops of France and Bavaria, by the exalted Courage and Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough: We eſteem this Bleſſing granted to us, as a Reward of Your Majeſty's extraordinary Piety and Virtue.

We beg Your Majeſty will not Impute our ſo late Addreſſing to the want of a true Sence of the many Advantages which will accrue to Your Self and Subjects, from ſo compleat a Victory, but an agreeable Opportunity of having it preſented to Your Majeſty.

It ſhall be our daily Prayers, That he who has Bleſſed Your Arms with this mighty Succeſs, will further aſſiſt them, to the reducing of France to ſuch a Condition, that it may be no longer able to oppreſs its Neighbours; and that all her Emiſſaries here may for ever Diſpair of diſturbing Your Majeſty and Your Succeſſors. May Your Majeſty ſee this ſpeedily accompliſhed, and live to enjoy, a long, healthful, and peaceable Reign over us; which is the unfeigned deſire of us, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful Subjects.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, dated the 17th day of November, in the Third Year of Your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Totneſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by Major-General Seymour and Thomas Coulſon Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Pawlett, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Devon.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Maſters, and Councellors, and of other the Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Totneſs in the County of Devon.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being ſenſible that nothing leſs than the total Subverſion of the Rights and Liberties of Europe, and the Extirpation of our Holy Religion, could have ſatisfied the Ambition of the French King, could not but with Horrour ſee him aggrandized in Power by his Uſurpation of the Spaniſh Monarchy; and by the Adherence of ſuch other Powers as he had withdrawn from their Duty and Allegiance. Neither can we ceaſe to Adore him by whom King's Reign, when we conſider that he hath given Your Majeſty Counſel and Strength for the Battel, ſuch as the pretended Invincible hath not been able to withſtand. Permit us therefore, Dread Sovereign, to Congratulate thoſe great and glorious Atchievements of Your Majeſty's Armies and Fleets, by the Valour, and under the Conduct of his Grace John Duke of Marlborough and of Sir George Rooke; And may the like Succeſſes attend all Your Majeſty's Cares and Endeavours for the Publick Good, till Peace be Eſtabliſhed to Poſterity, and all Your Majeſty's Subjects become truly ſenſible of the Happineſs they Enjoy under the benign Influence of Your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

The following Addreſs from the Town of Okehampton was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Simon Leach, Knight of the Bath, and Thomas Northmore Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Granville.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Burgeſſes, Town-Clerk, and Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's Ancient Corporation of Okehampton, in the County of Devon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, with all Humility, crave Leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty's moſt glorious Victory in Germany, againſt the Combined Enemies to Your Majeſty, Your Allies, the Proteſtant Religion, and Liberties of Europe, under the wiſe and valiant Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, Your Majeſty's Captain-General; as alſo upon the Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Fleet.

We look upon this Bleſſing, which God hath vouchſafed You, to be an earneſt of the Reward of Your Piety towards him, Your Princely Munificence to the poorer ſort of Clergy of the Church of England, and Your tender Concern for the Rights, Liberties, and Univerſal Welfare of Your People. The Nations Your Majeſty rules over are not the only object of Your Care, but Your extenſive Goodneſs exerts it ſelf to recover the languiſhing State and Condition of Europe.

May Your great Endeavours in ſuch glorious Enterprizes be ever attended with Victory and Succeſs, as they will be always with the Veneration of all good Men: And that it may pleaſe the Divine Providence to grant Your Majeſty, for the Safety, Peace, and Welfare of Your Kingdoms and Dominions, a long and proſperous Reign over us, ſhall ever be the Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Obedient Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the City of Chicheſter was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Miller and William Elſm Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Somerſet.
